Your Nature and Temperament

With Leo rising and the Sun in its own sign in the first house, you carry yourself with natural dignity. People tend to notice you when you walk into a room, even when you are not trying to be noticed. The lagna lord sitting strong in the lagna gives steady self-belief and a clear sense of what you will and will not accept.

Jupiter and Venus share that first house with the Sun. Jupiter adds warmth, fairness and a teacher's instinct; Venus adds grace, taste and an eye for beauty. Together they soften Leo's pride into generosity.

Your Moon is exalted in Taurus, in Kritika nakshatra. Emotionally you are steadier than most: you like routine, good food, familiar people and a home that feels settled. Kritika gives the Moon a sharp edge, so when something is unfair you say so plainly, and you rarely change your mind once it is made up.

Second house: Virgo

Third house: Libra

Fourth house: Scorpio

Fifth house: Sagittarius

Rahu sits here, and its lord Jupiter is in the lagna. Unusual learning, a creative mind and strong opinions.

Sixth house: Capricorn

Saturn in its own sign gives Harsha Yoga. You outlast competition and do well in service-oriented work.

Houses Seven to Twelve

Seventh house: Aquarius

Ruled by Saturn in the sixth. Partnership tends to come a little later and grows stronger with time. A responsible, hardworking partner suits you.

Eighth house: Pisces

Ruled by Jupiter in the lagna. This gives protection in times of crisis and an interest in deeper subjects.

Ninth house: Aries

Ruled by Mars, your Yogakaraka, placed in the tenth. Fortune comes through action and career.

Tenth house: Taurus

An exalted Moon and Mars. A reputation for reliability and drive. Work that serves the public suits you.

Eleventh house: Gemini

Twelfth house: Cancer

Mercury sits here. A rich inner life, and interest in travel, research or spiritual study.

Yogas in Your Chart

- Gaja Kesari Yoga: Jupiter is in the fourth house from your Moon. This gives respect, sound judgement and help when you need it.
- Chandra-Mangala Yoga: the Moon and Mars together in Taurus link feeling with effort, and earnings with initiative.
- Raja Yoga: the lords of the fifth and tenth houses (Jupiter and Venus), and of the first and fifth (Sun and Jupiter), meet in your lagna. This promises rise in status through your own merit.
- Yogakaraka Mars: Mars rules both the fourth and ninth houses for Leo ascendant, so its periods are especially productive.
- Harsha Yoga: Saturn, lord of the sixth house, in its own sign in the sixth. You overcome rivals and recover well from setbacks.

Career and Wealth

---

The tenth house holds an exalted Moon with Mars, and its lord Venus sits in the lagna. This points to a career where you are seen and trusted: management, public service, design, hospitality, finance or teaching.

Wealth builds through steady effort (Chandra-Mangala Yoga) and through the second lord Mercury's link to the twelfth house, which favours work with foreign clients or institutions.

The Jupiter mahadasha from November 2031 is a strong period for advancement.

SAMPLE

Marriage and Relationships

---

The seventh house is Aquarius, ruled by Saturn in its own sign in the sixth. Commitment is taken seriously and tends to deepen with time.

Venus in the lagna gives charm and makes you an affectionate partner. In the navamsa, Venus sits in its own sign, Libra, which is a supportive placement for married life.

The current Venus antardasha until May 2028 is favourable for marriage or for strengthening an existing bond.

Health and Wellbeing

---

A strong Sun in the lagna gives good basic vitality. Saturn in the sixth house rewards regular routines: fixed meal times, enough sleep and steady exercise.

During the Sade Sati years from 2028, rest more than usual and avoid taking on too many responsibilities at once.

This is general wellbeing guidance and not medical advice.
